The Honorable Dianne Feinstein
Ranking Member
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
331 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Chairman Graham and Ranking Member Feinstein:

I write to supplement the Senate Judiciary Questionnaire filed with the Committee on December 18, 2018, in connection with my nomination to be Attorney General of the United States.

Pages 259-266 of the attachments to Question 12(e) are not imaged properly. I attach an updated version of those pages correcting the imaging error.

In response to Question 7, I registered for the selective service at 18, as required, and was subject to the draft. My answer on the Questionnaire was intended to reflect that, given my age, I am no longer required to be registered with the selective service.

In response to a question from Ranking Member Feinstein's staff, to the best of my recollection my service on the Federalist Society's 1987 Convention Planning Committee is the extent of my responsive affiliation with the Federalist Society. While I have intermittently participated in activities organized by the Federalist Society, I have not been a member. Speeches I have given at Federalist Society events are listed in my answer to Question 12.

Thank you very much for your consideration of my nomination.

Sincerely,
